

UML Case Diagram

The UML Case Diagram represents a simple application. A user is display a regional map and a simple menu of options along the bottom of the screen. Users can add a package to be tracked from any carrier. The package is then displayed on the map with its location and status. On selection of a package icon package details are displayed. On clicking off the user returns to the View Map state making it the default state of the application